MASTERS OF PRINT

In association with Hahnemühle FineArt

It was great to see so many of you at the Opening in St Martin in the Bull Ring and, although I didn't get much time to talk with people, it seemed to be a happy occasion.

If you didn't manage to get to the opening, please try to see the exhibition as it tours. If the budget permits, further venues will be announced in e-news, after the shows in Oldbury and Liverpool.

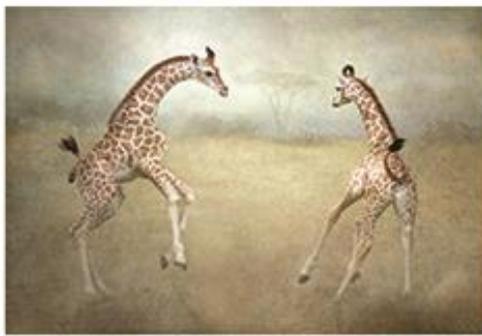

e-news 244 extra will be out at the weekend with the complete list of accepted pictures to the 2019 MASTERS OF PRINTS, the complete Hall of Fame, all the medal and prize winners and lots of pictures from the opening in Birmingham.

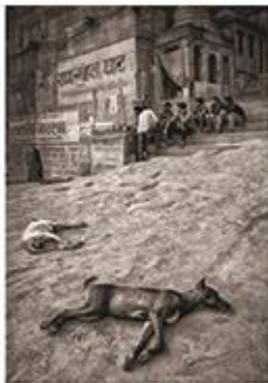

THREE IN A ROW

At the Opening I mentioned that Six people have achieved the near-impossible feat of gaining an acceptance in all three of the MASTERS OF PRINT exhibitions, in fact it is Seven! (See e-news 244 extra).

Richard Speirs, our photographer, caught up with 4 of them. Warren Alani, Paul Jay, Ross McKelvey and Maybeth Jamieson. Not in the picture are Paul Hassell, Jenny Hibbert and Sue Moore.

If you have a photograph in the Exhibition and you were able to attend the Opening to sign our Archive Catalogue, you will have been presented with the unique, and still rare, PAGB Print Badge, especially commissioned for the Masters of Print. Your catalogue will be posted to you or your Club but you only get the badge when you sign the catalogue.

If you could not attend, please catch up with me at another PAGB event. I usually bring the Archive catalogue for your signature.

Masters of Print Hall of Fame

During 2020, I intend to run a new MASTERS OF PRINT Hall of Fame featuring every one of you but I can only do this if you send me the material. I need 4-8 photographs at normal PDI size and about 300 words. This can be about you and your photographic history, your Club, your reaction to the Masters of Print Opening if you attended or, in fact, anything you want to write!

Remember to include your website or anywhere else where the readers can see more of your work.

Don't worry if you have been featured in previous years, so long as you send me different photographs!
