Although the SAL?N DES REFUSÉS is chosen primarily for its variety of genre and style, every print in this selection scored highly with our judges.

Making its London debut at the Excel exhibition centre from 8-11 March, The Photography & Video Show 2025 will be bigger than in 2024, housing more exhibitors, more of the latest kit and more opportunities to try, compare and buy all under one roof.

The event will also host an outstanding line-up of award-winning photographers and videographers sharing tips and techniques across a wide range of genres, including music, fashion, portrait, landscape, travel and adventure photography. Experts in their craft including Christie Goodwin, Dean Sherwood, Lindsay Adler, Colin Prior and David DuChemin and their talks and demonstrations will be accessible to anyone with a show entry ticket.

It's the perfect day out for anyone passionate about photography or video creation; amateurs and professionals alike! Get 20% off advance entry tickets with code PAGB25 and for information

Jeanette Savigar DPAGB

I have been interested in photography for 10 years and joined Chorley PS 6 years ago.

I taught myself photoshop during lock down. I am dyslexic which seems to always be helped me in my creativity and my imagination and I prefer to print my images. I got a lot of inspiration and encouragement from other members who had tried for PAGB distinctions and I achieved my CPAGB with prints in 2022.

I taught myself photoshop during lockdown.

I am mostly interested in nature, zoo animals and portraiture and I am inspired by looking at fine art images of the past. I like a variety of different images, compositing and story-telling.

With help from my mentors and other club members, I achieved my Print DPAGB this November at Winsford. It was a nerve wracking day but with lots of encouragement from others and seeing other images being judged was very interesting. It give me the confidence to put in for the Master of Print for the first time.

I am going to try for EPAGB in April 2026, giving myself plenty of time to do 15 new images and to improve my skills. I would like to thank everyone who helped me in my Journey and I would encourage others to have a go.

THE PHOTOJOURNALISTIC APPROACH WITH LUCIEN MIGNÉ

Wednesday 19 February 2025 at 7pm London Time Presented by the FIAP Photo Academy Online Events

Independent documentary photographer Lucien MIGNÉ is based in Marseille, France, and works on reports that are mainly interested in social and environmental issues. After several years of traveling around the world during which he sharpened his eye as a photographer, Lucien took up cinema studies (graduating with a Master's degree from the Satis Cinema/Photography school) and directed several short films.

He then turned to photography, from Moroccan manual workers to water scarcity in Lebanon, to Egyptian limestone quarries, his work explores the human and social mechanisms that shape our current world.

AWARDS FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC MERIT

In this issue we are featuring the BPAGB (Badge Award). In later issues we will look at recent successes at CPAGB, DPAGB, EPAGB and MPAGB. Lots of great images to look forward to.

Adjudication held at Winsford 23 & 24 April 2024

7 applications were adjudicated at BPAGB and all were successful:

Geraint Philip Williams	Stevenage PS	EAF
•
Patrick Crowhurst	Sileby PS	N&EMPF
Stuart Lewis	Sodbury & Yate PC	WCPF
Barbara Thompson	Clay Cross PS	N&EMPF
Lee Paul Streeton	Northampton Natural History Society	MCPF
Sonia Nadolen Jones	Llandudno PS	NWPA
Alan Crisp	Bognor Regis CC	SCPF

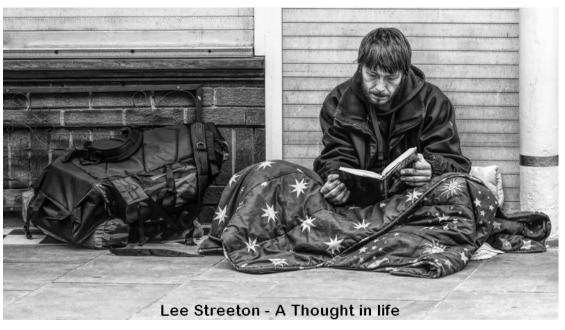

Page 9 of 12, e-news Issue 372 18 January 2025

This was only the Second Adjudication for the newly introduced BPAGB (Badge) Award for Photographic Merit and it was delightful that all applicants were successful.

The images are assessed as if they were entered for the CPAGB but with fewer images and a lower passing score. Many, although not all, of the images scored highly enough to form a successful CPAGB entry at a future Adjudication.
